Another Tomorrow

There's always another tomorrow, however hard the day.
 There's always an end to sorrow, time to wipe the tears away.
 There's always a reason for living, though sad your heart might be.
 There's always another horizon, beyond the one you see.

Notes from St Margaret's

November is the beginning of winter but a busy time. It starts with a bang, for around the 5th children, young and old, thrill to firework displays. On some parts of the continent it is the beginning of carnival on the eleventh day. Here, there is a growing field of red poppies to remind us all of the sacrifice, loss and horror of war.

In the towns shops are very busy with pre-Christmas shoppers. Finally, the cooks amongst us are preparing Christmas cakes and puddings, traditionally made on Stir-up Sunday, which is the last Sunday in November.

In church we celebrate All Saints day on the 1st, not forgetting that later this month there are the special days for St Margaret on 16th November and St Andrew on 30th.

However, we must not forget that Advent is almost here and we need to prepare for that special birth.

Best wishes

Margaret Gray

Advent

There will be three midweek Advent meditations commencing on Wednesday 3 December at 10:00am to be held at St Margaret's Church.

It will be a brief reflective service of prayers and readings to create a time of peace removed from the busy pre-Christmas rush to help create a spiritual preparation for the Saviour's birth.

All members from all local churches are very welcome to join us in Christian fellowship, followed by a cup of tea or coffee in the hall.
