Notes from St Margaret's

It seems only yesterday that we were enjoying the beauty of a glorious autumn. Now it is Christmas countdown and the weather is colder.

However, during this busy season of preparation, spare a moment to pray for the many who, for various reasons, cannot celebrate the joys of this festive season.

At church, Advent begins a period of hope and preparation for the joyous event, the blessed birth of our Saviour, in a cold and damp stable.

A very merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to you all.

Best wishes
Margaret Gray
