Rose beyond the Wall by A L Frink

A rose once grew where all could see,
Sheltered beside a garden wall
And as the days passed swiftly by
It spread its branches, straight and tall.

One day a beam of light shone through
A crevice that had opened wide -
The rose bent gently towards its warmth
Then passed beyond to the other side.

Now, you feel deeply, feel its loss,
Be comforted - the rose blooms there -
Its beauty even greater now,
Nurtured by God's own loving care.

Notes from St Margaret's

After a cold spring we have reached the longest day so perhaps, during this month, we should all make time to enjoy the beauty and warmth of summer, whether away on holiday or remaining home.

For those tennis fans amongst us there is the opportunity of consuming strawberries and cream as they watch the televised action of Wimbledon fortnight.

Hopefully there will be the weather to enjoy the pleasure of a summer outing or maybe just a summer BBQ.

June is often symbolised in the numerous variety of roses, their scent, shape, colour and size of the different varieties but always be on guard against the perils of their thorns.

As Christians there is the religious symbolism of the rose which is a constant reminder that our sins are forgiven because of the ultimate sacrifice of Christ's death.

Best wishes
Margaret Gray

St Margaret's Mission Statement

The mission of St Margaret's church is to worship together, reach out, with the other churches, to those in the community and beyond, offering them welcome and hospitality wherever they are on their spiritual journey.
