The Rose Beyond the Wall by A L Frink

*A rose once grew where all could see,
sheltered beside a garden wall,
and as the days passed swiftly by,
it spread its branches, straight and tall ...*

*One day, a beam of light shone through
A crevice that had opened wide.
The rose bent gently toward its warmth
then passed beyond to the other side.*

*Now you who deeply feel its loss,
Be comforted - the rose blooms there
Its beauty even grater now, nurtured by God's own loving care.*

Notes from St Margaret's

Finally, summer has arrived and hopefully we will be able, weather permitting to enjoy the delights of our Scottish countryside, perhaps even venture further afield.

However, June is the month we welcome the flowering of the beautiful rose, immortalised by our greatest Scottish poet, Robert Burns.

Can I draw your attention to a new diocesan ion project, 'Photography as Prayer'. There are further details on a poster in the hall with detailed leaflets in the church. There is no expertise or special equipment necessary and members of this congregation are encouraged to submit up to 3 prints. It is your invitation to contribute to a travelling diocesan exhibition or a chance to feature in a 2019 Diocesan Calendar.

Best wishes, Margaret Gray

A Thorny Rose by Kirston D Warfield

*Our life is like a thorny rose,
Not perfect, but always beautiful.
The thorns represent the hardships in our lives.
The delicate red petals represent the fun and beautiful things
in our lives,
As a young rose the petals hugging around the seed are the family and friends who protect, love and care for us.*
