Notes from St Margaret's

As I write this month's newsletter Tayport is in the midst of numerous road diversions due to the major modernisation of the gas pipes. It is astonishing how temporary changes can disrupt our daily lives. Outside our bungalow there is a temporary bus stop, I never realised how many buses we are privileged to have in a small town.

School holidays will soon be over and another academic year will commence, opening new horizons for the young and a change of school for the senior students.

At St Margaret's we are looking forward to welcoming visitors on 'Doors Open Day' on Sunday 2 September as well as the return of our Wednesday morning ecumenical Meditations commencing on 22 August.

This year, the unprecedented warm weather has provided some wonderful garden displays in Tayport, including our own church garden. Meanwhile, let us all enjoy the remaining last few weeks of this year's summer before the changing signs of autumn descend upon us.

Best wishes, Margaret Gray

Happiness is like a butterfly, the more you chase it,

The more it will elude you. But if you turn your Attention to other things, it comes and softly sits on your shoulder.
