Time by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

*The tide rises, the tide falls,
The Twilight darkens, the curlew calls;
Along the sea-sands damp and brown
The traveller hastens toward the town,
And the tide rises, the tide falls.*

*Darkness settles on roofs and walls,
But the sea, the sea in the darkness calls;
The little waves, with their soft white hands,
Efface the footprints in the sands,
And the tide rises, the tide falls.*

Notes from St Margaret's

We have reached the seventh month and look forward to a moment in time when we can relax and take stock. For many younger families it is school holidays and the additional task of wondering how to occupy their time and keep them amused.

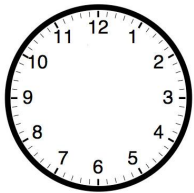

We have the joy of greeting extra visitors to Tayport, whether it is family, friends or tourists. Let us hope the weather is kind to us, as according to tradition on St Swithin's day (15 July) whether rain or shine - it will continue for the next 40 days.

Our Church Lectionary enters into the long period of Sundays after Pentecost. Here at St Margaret's we look forward to welcoming summer visitors to our weekly worship.

Hopefully, we will have good weather to spend some time in our gardens enjoying the fruits of our busy spring labour or pursuing other relaxing outside activities.

Enjoy your time in July.

Best wishes, Margaret Gray

TIME

"OUR MOST PRECIOUS RESOURCE"

Take time to think, it is the source of power,

Take time to pray, it is the greatest power on earth,

Take time to laugh, it is the music of the soul,

Take time to give, it is too short a life to be selfish,

Take time to love and be loved, it is a God-given privilege.
