Priest's Message

Midsummer sanctuary!

Our diaries are full - things to do, places to visit and making up for the deprivations of Covid. In return, the earth repeats her yield at harvest time, thank God! No matter how we become overwrought with the issues of the day and the state of the world, God offers us sanctuary and a safe place to restore and revive our spirit. It's a good day when our spiritual harvest sustains our busyness and worldliness.

Season of Creation will again be celebrated throughout the diocese, culminating in our own Harvest service and a new event - participating in the Harvest Festival at the Community Gardens. We will be offering a service of Thanksgiving: a special way of taking church into the world and in the open air of our lovely village and its people.

The Walking and Fellowship groups as well as the Tuesday Ecumenical Zoom meetings are on summer recess. On 14th August we join St Mary's in Newport for their 136th Patronal Festival and Bishop Ian Paton will be our visitor.

Blessing as abundant as the harvest! Rev Kathy Barrable.
