Notes from St Margaret's

October is the golden month, a blaze of changing colours. The summer becomes a memory. There are now shorter spells of bright sunshine but the wind blows those falling leaves!

There are busy times ahead as we watch the arrival of the flying squadrons of geese.

Last month, on Doors Open Sunday, St Margaret's welcomed a number of visitors to our pretty church. Do read their comments in our church's visitors book. Many thanks to everybody who produced cakes to sell on that afternoon. St Margaret's is a small church with a big heart.

Best wishes, Margaret Gray

I like spring, but it is too young.

I like summer but it is too proud.

So I like best of all autumn

Because its leaves are a little yellow,

Its tone mellow,

In colours richer and it is tingled a little with sorrow...

Its golden richness speaks not of the innocence of spring

Nor of the power of summer

But of the mellowness and kindly wisdom of approaching age

It knows the limitations of life and is content'
