Notes from St Margaret's

Remembrance Sunday marks the end of our hundred year commemoration for the First World War. We should never forget the terrible cost of World War 1. Let us pray that its horrendous testament will remain an emotive symbol for world peace. Don't forget to attend Tayport's own Remembrance Service commencing at the Tayport War Memorial at 10.30am on Sunday 11 November.

The colours of autumn have faded, the hours of daylight are shorter and the temperatures colder. Our glorious summer days are now only a memory, however, we look forward to Christmas when once again, we celebrate the birth of our Saviour.

Best wishes, Margaret Gray

Flanders Field by John McCrae, May 1915

In Flanders fields the poppies blow

Between the crosses, row on row,

That mark our place; and in the sky

The larks, still bravely singing, fly

Scarce heard amid the guns below.
