Notes from St Margaret's

June is a time that we can enjoy the outdoor pleasures of summer. There is the joy of observing the flying antics of summer visitors, the swallows. We can also benefit from the longer days of sunlight when visiting local botanical gardens, historical houses or maybe just a walk around our beautiful Scottish coast. Weather permitting of course!!

At the beginning of this month, the Church celebrates the festival of Pentecost, when we recall the descent of the Holy Spirit onto the disciples of Jesus after his Ascension.

Our local CATT Committee will be holding their annual evening Songs of Praise, this year at the United Free Church on 9 June. At the end of the month there is the sponsored walk to Morton Lochs for Christian Aid on 29 June.

Best wishes, Margaret Gray

Upon the Swallow - by John Bunyan

This pretty bird, oh how she flies and sings,

But could she do so if she had not wings?

Her wings bespeak my faith, her songs my peace;

When I believe and sing my doubtings cease.
