Greetings dear friends in Christ
from Revd Kathy Barrable

Peace and Grace, dear friends in Christ!

Autumn is officially here, the equinox passed and we have a bright - coloured and multi-hued month upcoming!

I urge you to keep positive and to enjoy every moment of each day, praising God for the wonders around and within us: holding yourself in prayer: for your miraculous life: holding those in need, both here in our lovely villages and further afield.

Many of us have families and friends in far-off places and you and I know the power of prayer for whatever our mood or need.

Let us pray for one another as a community: thanking God for our rich history, which positions us to be relevant and a beacon right now as people feel insecurity and sometimes fear and reaching out to those out there yet to be drawn into the love of Christ, as we show it to one another.

Thank you for looking after me so caringly and for having me in your home and church. I am very fulfilled in your midst. As we go into a stage of wise adherence to the Covid rules, let us make the most of talking to each other telephonically and for those of you who can, to join us on Zoom, and worship together in the sacred space of our church. We are so grateful that we can still hold church services.

Blessings and may you feel the presence of our Lord every moment, at work or in the cherished times of journeying together. We are looking at yet further ways of joining together in exploration.

Kathy
